

Local Man Arrested in Wild Chase

A series of allegations including reckless driving but said he was not guilty of resisting arrest. Redondo Beach Police Officer John Snider said he placed the three charges against Jarrett after the events of a long-distance chase beginning at 5:58 in the afternoon. Snider said he spotted Jarrett's car traveling west on Dominguez st. at Blossom Lane at more than 60 miles an hour. He added he took up the chase and watched Jarrett as he failed to stop for a sign, followed him through North Redondo streets, sometimes only by a cloud of dust left by the car ahead of him. He finally caught up to the vehicle after it ran into a fire hydrant, which it sheared off while trying to make a left turn to Marshallfield Lane from Harkness Lane, Snider said.

He said the car came to rest on top of the hydrant. Bystanders excitedly pointed out the route taken on foot by Jarrett, the officer explained, adding that the young man had broken a window to force entry into the home of Evelyn Braddock, 1713 Marshallfield Lane, then tried to enter the next house. When Jarrett saw him, Snider said, the youth ran back to the scene of the accident, where he was taken into custody. However, Snider said, his troubles were not over yet. When told he was under arrest, Jarrett became belligerent and Officer Norman Brockman of the Hermosa Beach depart-

Marines Set Enlistments

Tsgt. David Poland, Marine Corps recruiter for the Torrance area, announced that there are no waiting lists at the present time for the two-year enlistment program. Persons enlisting under this program are afforded all the opportunities offered in other longer term enlistments, he stated. Young men wishing to take advantage of this added inducement may contact Sgt. Poland at the Marine Corps Recruiting Station, room 5, 1526 Cravens ave., Torrance, or call FAirfax 8-3209.

ment had to aid in placing him in the police car, the Redondo officer said. Jarrett promptly kicked out a window of the car, Snider declared. Jarrett was sentenced to 30 days in jail on the drunk driving charge and 10 days for reckless driving. He will appear in court again at a later date for trial on the resisting arrest charge.

Pair Trapped 30 Minutes Inside Auto

A space of 30 minutes seemed like hours to a Torrance couple who, lacerated and shocked, were trapped in their overturned automobile this week. John Lazalere, 25, the driver, and Jean Lazalere, 24, of 20550 Earl st., were trapped in the car for over half an hour until firemen could open the jammed doors. The vehicle belonging to Mr.

and Mrs. Lazalere overturned on Earl st., south of Del Amo Blvd., in the Victor area between Torrance and Redondo Beach. Lazalere said his car overturned when he swerved onto a slope by the side of the road to avoid youngsters in the street. Mr. and Mrs. Lazalere were taken to Harbor General hospital, where they were treated for cuts, bruises, and possible internal injuries.
